Case No. CJ-2024-267

Devon Energy Production Company, L.P.)

CLASS REPRESENTATIVE'S SUPPLEMENT TO MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL

Class Representative, Wake Energy, LLC ("Class Representative"), on behalf of itself and all others similarly situated, respectfully submits this Supplement to Class Representative's Motion for Final Approval filed December 17, 2024. As is common, Class Representative's Motion for Final Approval was due prior to the request for exclusion and objection deadlines (January 6, 2025 and January 17, 2024, respectively). As a result, Class Representative submits this supplement to address objections, requests for exclusion, and to update the Plan of Allocation.

I. Objections.

Class Representative is pleased to report that there were no objections as of the objection deadline (January 17, 2025), nor have any objections been received as of the time of this filing.

II. Requests for Exclusion.

Out of the 6,376 potential Class Members, only one (1) request for exclusion was submitted. This request was received from Canvas Energy, LLC, formerly known as Chaparral Energy, L.L.C. This request represents 0.0066% of the Settlement value under the Initial Plan of Allocation, attached as Exhibit B to Exhibit 4 to Class Representative's Memorandum in Support of its Motion for Final Approval. In other words, over 99.9934% of the value of Class Member claims have chosen to participate in and support the Settlement. With respect to approving a class action settlement, it is not an abuse of discretion for a district court to approve a class settlement from which an “extremely small percentage of class members opted out.” Rutter & Wilbanks Corp. v. Shell Oil Co., 314 F.3d 1180, 1188 (10th Cir. 2002). As such, Class Representative recommends approving the request for exclusion made by Canvas Energy, LLC at the Final Fairness Hearing on February 7, 2025.

III. Updated Plan of Allocation.

Class Representative submits herewith an updated and corrected Plan of Allocation attached as Exhibit “1”. This updated Plan of Allocation accounts for the exclusion requested by Canvas Energy, LLC, discussed supra. Further, this updated Plan of Allocation corrects the initial plan of allocation that, due to a scrivener’s error, was inadvertently based upon a Net Settlement Fund of $1,009,000.00 rather than a Net Settlement Fund of $991,000.00. However, this minor miscalculation would not result in prejudice to any Class Member because the Notices, along with Class Counsel’s Motion for Approval of Reimbursement of Litigation Expenses and Administration, Notice, and Distribution Costs filed December 17, 2024, reflected the correct Net Settlement Fund and any resulting adjustments are negligible. Accordingly, Class Representative recommends approving the Plan of Allocation attached hereto as the Final Fairness Hearing on February 7, 2025.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: February 7, 2025.
